Mera Chota Ghar Program

Welcome to Mera Chota Ghar (My Small House), a dedicated, culturally sensitive, unique program for those individuals of Indian descent, at Hillside Manor Rehabilitation and Extended Care Center. Mera Chota Ghar was developed to meet the growing needs of our surrounding neighborhood population of individuals of Indian, Guyanese, Bengali and Pakistani descents. Our goals are to ensure that our residents continue to enjoy satisfied, happy, productive lives by providing a cultural and ethnically sensitive living environment each day. The dedicated unit is located on our 11th floor.

About Our Facility

Hillside Manor Rehabilitation and Extended Care Center, a 400 bed skilled nursing facility, has been serving the Jamaica Estates and surrounding communities since 1975, providing loving, dignified, and respectful skilled nursing care services for both short and long term residents. We have an established reputation as a provider of excellence.

About Our Program

- Our unit staff speak fluent Hindi, Urdu, Punjabi, Bengali, and Gujarati.
- The unit is culturally decorated to create a warm, homelike atmosphere.
- Prayer and worship take place daily in our dedicated prayer room.
- Delicious, traditional Indian cuisine is prepared and served daily. Vegan and Halal options are available.
- Diverse and interesting recreational activities are offered daily, including special programs for holidays and festivals celebrated throughout the year.
- Indian newspapers, books, periodicals, and Indian cable television channels are available to stay up-to-date with current events. Free Wi-Fi.
- Private and semi-private room accommodations.
